It was a time characterized by exploration, economic expansion, and cultural exchanges among European settlers, Indigenous peoples, and fur traders. Key aspects of this era include: - The role of Indigenous tribes as vital trading partners and guides. - The development of trading posts and forts. - The expansion of trapping and fur harvesting into the Rocky Mountains and Great Plains. - The decline of the fur trade after the advent of beaver hat fashions in Europe and changing economic priorities.

Their clothing, tools, and customs have become iconic representations of frontier life. They relied heavily on buckskinning—crafting and wearing clothing suited for harsh climates
