Over his lifetime, Wilson authored ten plays, each set in a different decade of the 20th century, collectively known as the Pittsburgh Cycle or Century Cycle. These plays chronicle the evolution of Black life, culture, and struggles across decades, with Fences set in the 1950s.

Historical and Cultural Backdrop

Fences is set during a period of significant social change in America—post-World War II, when African Americans were fighting for civil rights and economic equality.
